

SUSTAINABLE PROCUREMENT PROGRAMME

SUPPLY CHAIN CODE OF CONDUCT

The University of Glasgow has adopted the following Supply Chain Code of Conduct document in alignment with the sustainable procurement programme led by Advanced Procurement for Universities and Colleges (APUC) and measured through the EcoVadis Sustainability Rating Programme. This policy is a part of University's Procurement Policy and incorporated into the all procurement and supply chain activities including tendering and contract procedures.

Further information on EcoVadis can be found on the website <http://www.ecovadis.com> . For any issues or concerns relating to University of Glasgow Sustainable Procurement Programme, please contact the Procurement Office at procurementhelpline@glasgow.ac.uk

The University of Glasgow is a Living Wage accredited employer. The University has adopted workforce policies to meet these requirements. These policies include:

- A strong commitment to supporting the Living Wage - <http://scottishlivingwage.org/>
- No inappropriate use of zero hours contracts;
- Support for learning and development.

In order to ensure the highest standards of service quality in this contract, we expect our Suppliers and extended supply chain to take a similarly positive approach to workforce-related matters as part of a fair and equitable employment and reward package.

The Supplier will not do anything to jeopardise the University's accreditation status and will assist the University as reasonably required by the University to maintain (as relevant) such accreditation. The Supplier will ensure that its Sub-Contractors will comply with the above.

Sustain Supply Chain Code of Conduct

We are committed to carrying out procurement activities in an environmentally, socially, ethically and economically responsible manner and to entering into agreements and contracts with suppliers that share and adhere to its vision. To demonstrate this commitment, current and potential suppliers are asked to acknowledge their compliance with the principles of the Sustain Supply Chain Code of Conduct, below, with respect to their organisation and their supply chain (reference to “Suppliers” in this code means Suppliers and their supply chains). This standards in this Code are derived from established global conventions and standards.

With respect to Social Compliance suppliers shall:

1. Not use forced, involuntary or underage labour

- 1.1 Workers should be free to choose their employment and leave that employment on reasonable notice without hold of financial deposit or personal items.
- 1.2 Forced, bonded or involuntary prison labour shall not be used.
- 1.3 Not engage in any way with human trafficking, or support or work with organisations that engage in any way with human trafficking activity, organisations or persons.
- 1.4 Recruitment fees, if applicable, are always borne by the employer only.

Such support by the supplier should recognise and not prove detrimental to the conditions of the child or those that their work supports.

2. Provide suitable working conditions and terms

- 2.1 At least statutory minimum wages must be paid without discrimination to all workers and all non-statutory deductions must be reasonable and with the consent of the worker. Where a "living wage" exists that is higher than the legal minimum wage (or where no legal minimum exists), then a living wage should be paid.
- 2.2 Working hours must not be excessive (not over 48 hours per week, excluding overtime) and must allow for at least 1 day off for each 7-day period on average or, where allowed by national law, 2 days off in every 14-day period. Working beyond this should be non-regular and of employees own will and not used to replace regular employment.
