

MHRNS Symposium 2: “Mental Health” and “Dependency” Saturday 18 May 2013

Location: Room 202 (first floor), 4 University Gardens, Glasgow, G12 8QQ.

- 9.00 Doors Open
- 9.30 Welcome (Dr Gavin Miller, Dr David Shuttleton)
- 9.45 Dr Lucy Burke (Manchester Metropolitan University), “Care and Dependency: Keywords in Disability Culture or Why Language Matters”
- 10.45 Break.
- 11.00 Dr Allan Beveridge (NHS), “The Madness of Gerard de Nerval”
Arianna Intronna (University of Stirling), “‘Mo Said She Was Quirky’: Resisting Diagnosis and/of the ‘Other’ Illness in Violet Jacob and James Kelman”
Dr John Callender (University of Aberdeen and Royal Cornhill Hospital), “The Emergence of Mental Disorders”
- 12.30 Lunchbreak (bring sandwich lunch)
- 1.30 Prof. Chris Philo and Dr Cheryl McGeachan (Glasgow University), “The work of words: exploring Foucault, Laing and the colours of ‘mad’ words”
Dr Vicky Long (Glasgow Caledonian University), “Destigmatising mental illness? Historical perspectives on public education”
Dr Peter J. Gordon (NHS), “Our elderly and their memory: can one word really matter?”
- 3.00 Break
- 3.15 Dr Jonathan Andrews (Newcastle University), “Asylum patient cultures: contextualising patient contributors to Edinburgh Asylum’s Morningside Mirror”
- 4.15 Close